

Be alert!

Don't be one of the 2000

serious vehicle injuries at work

Last year 70 people were killed and 2000 more were seriously injured in accidents involving vehicles at work. Keeping to your side of the segregation lines, wearing a high visibility vest and generally being aware of your surroundings are just a few simple ways you can stay safe. You can find many more ways on our website.

www.hse.gov.uk/workplacetransport or call 0845 345 0055

Staying safe is simple

Vehicles in the workplace

Health and Safety
Executive

