How To Find Us

By Bus

You can reach Rose Court using the following bus routes:

(a) 344 runs between Liverpool Street and Clapham Junction approximately every 12 minutes during peak hours. It stops virtually outside Rose Court.

(b) 381 runs from York Road and goes to Southwark Street. It runs every 10 minutes. Then it's a short walk towards the river up Southwark Bridge Road. Rose Court is on the right, opposite the Financial Times building.

By Rail

Situated on Southwark Bridge, Rose Court is easily reached from Mansion House, Bank, London Bridge, or Cannon Street tube stations.

From London Euston: Take Northern line to Bank or to London Bridge. You can also exit the station, turn right along Euston Road for approximately 400 yards and use the Circle Line to Cannon Street or Mansion House.

From London St Pancras or Kings Cross: Take either the Circle line to Mansion House, or the Northern line to Bank or London Bridge.

From London Paddington or London Victoria: Take Circle line to Mansion House or to Cannon Street. Alternatively, take District line but remember to change at Earl's Court.

From London Liverpool Street: Take the Circle line to Cannon Street or the 344 bus towards Clapham Junction. The bus stop is opposite the station entrance on Bishopsgate. Alight at the stop after crossing the Thames. Rose Court is opposite the Financial Times building.

From London Waterloo: Take Jubilee line to London Bridge.

Mansion House: District Line, Circle Line. Exit the station into Cannon Street and turn right. Take the next right into Queen Street (pedestrianised). Proceed down the hill, cross over Upper Thames Street and continue ahead over Southwark Bridge. Rose Court is on the other side of the river opposite the Financial Times building.

Bank: Central Line, Northern Line. Exit the station into Poultry and after a short distance take the left fork into Queen Victoria Street. After approximately 250 yards turn left into Queen Street and proceed down the hill towards the river. Cross the dual carriageway and continue ahead over Southwark Bridge. Rose Court is on the other side of the river opposite the Financial Times building.

London Bridge: Northern Line, Jubilee Line. Exit the station into Borough High Street, cross over and turn left away from the railway bridge. Follow the road round to the right into Southwark Street. For a shorter route, immediately turn right into Stoney Street which provides access to Borough Market. Take the first left into Park Street and follow the road under the railway bridge. Continue ahead past Maiden Lane until Park Street turns left opposite the Vinopolis warehouse and continue ahead. Pass under the bridge and immediately on the right take the steps up to Southwark Bridge Road. At the top turn left and the entrance to Rose Court is a short way up. For a longer route, walk along Southwark Street until you reach a set of traffic lights. Turn right into Southwark Bridge Road, and Rose Court is approximately 400 yards from that junction, on your left.

Blackfriars tube and rail stations are both closed until late 2011.

Where to Park?

There are no car parking facilities at Rose Court. Visitors may use the pay and display public car park on Southwark Street/Thrale Street or Upper Thames Street/Bell Wharf Lane.
