

Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974

Manufacture and Storage of Explosives Regulations 2005

Certificate of Exemption No 2 of 2010

1. In pursuance of the powers conferred on it by paragraph (1) of regulation 26 of the Manufacture and Storage of Explosives Regulations 2005 (“the 2005 Regulations”) and being satisfied as required by paragraph (2) of that regulation, the Health and Safety Executive exempts a person who stores marine distress signals from the requirements and prohibitions imposed by regulations 5 and 10 of the 2005 Regulations in relation to that storage, subject to the condition referred to in paragraph 3.

2. In this certificate:-

“marine distress signals” means pyrotechnic articles designed to attract attention in the event of a maritime emergency and allocated in accordance with the United Nations Recommendations the UN no. 0505, 0506 or 0507; and “explosive”, “pyrotechnic”, “shooters’ powder”, “site”, “UN no.” and “United Nations Recommendations” have the same meanings as they are given in the 2005 Regulations.

3. The condition referred to in paragraph 1 is that the quantity of marine distress signals together with:-

(a) any shooters’ powder;

(b) any explosive or combination of explosives listed in Schedule 1 to the Control of Explosives Regulations 1991; or

(c) a combination of shooters’ powder and any one or more of the explosives listed in Schedule 1 to those Regulations, stored at the same site at any one time by the person to whom the exemption applies, whether on that person’s own behalf or another’s, must not exceed 5 kilograms.

4. This certificate shall continue in force until its revocation by the Health and Safety Executive by a certificate in writing.
