I'll try contacting them although it's already standing room only for the meeting. Also, sure you're aware but I think the NFU have already talked to some of the press about the submissions. I'm expecting to start seeing higher profile press very soon.

hi [REDACTED]
I know [REDACTED] does not work Fridays, but I thought [REDACTED] contacting NFU, but it would not harm in you sending another mail we only ask about the publication of the agenda as this will be the first time in the public domain and we can expect some NGO activity once it goes live!

kind regards

Thanks [redacted] 've not heard from the NFU. Should I be expecting them to contact me directly?

Re: ECP agenda – I'm trying to find out. We don't really have an ECP section of the website yet so I'm not sure if they intend to continue to use the ACP one or will wait until everything is in place. If I hear I'll let you know.
