

BAD
HAND DAY?

Up to 70% of hairdressers suffer from some sort of skin damage. That's why we're launching a national campaign in November 2006 to highlight simple ways to protect your hands at work.

Environmental Health Officers will be visiting salons around the country to offer advice and information.

Look out for the campaign and wave goodbye to bad hand days.

