

APPENDIX 1 : MONITORING CHART FOR SUMP FLUID CONDITION

Management of metalworking fluids typically involves monitoring the condition of the fluid, and to help with this the guidance provides a flow chart for you to use.

For repeated use within your workplace the chart can be photocopied from the guidance or you can download it here (full copyright restrictions apply to other uses).

working safely with metalworking fluids
Good practice manual

