

Example C

Lessons learnt

- Designate and clearly mark reversing areas where pedestrians are prohibited
- Better segregation of pedestrians and vehicles
- Remove or minimise the need for vehicles to reverse, eg setting up one-way systems or drive-through loading/unloading systems
- Employ other control methods, ie intelligent transport systems such as rear parking sensors, proximity laser scanners, movement trackers